Brief report A seminar on "How to Join the Indian Army" was organized by the 8 Mah Girls Battalion in collaboration with the NCC unit at Viva College. Held in the college auditorium, the event saw active participation from 168 cadets and members, who were eager to learn about the pathways to serve the nation. The event aimed to provide aspiring candidates with essential information and insights into the recruitment process, eligibility criteria, and career opportunities within the Indian Army. The seminar began with a motivational speech by senior NCC officers, who shared their own experiences and underscored the values of discipline, bravery, and patriotism. They highlighted the importance of physical fitness, mental resilience, and dedication in succeeding in the Indian Army selection process. Guidance was also provided on preparing for the written exams, SSB interviews, and medical tests. Additionally, the officers discussed various entry schemes, such as the NDA, CDS, and the Technical Entry Scheme, catering to different educational backgrounds and aspirations. The interactive Q&A session allowed cadets to clarify their doubts and receive practical tips on training and exam preparation. Overall, the seminar was highly informative and motivating, reinforcing the aspirations of the participants to pursue a career in the Indian Army. The event concluded with an inspiring message encouraging cadets to serve with honor and commitment.
