Brief report of Programme The International Day of Yoga has been celebrated across the world annually on June 21 since 2015, following its inception in the United Nations General Assembly in 2014. Yoga is a physical, mental and spiritual practice which originated in ancient India The Indian Prime Minister Narendraji Modi, in his UN address in 2014, suggested an annual Day of Yoga on June 21, as it is the longest day of the year in the Northern Hemisphere and shares a special significance in many parts of the world. Following the initial proposal, the UN adopted the draft resolution, entitled "DAY OF YOGA", in 2014. The consultations were convened by the delegation of India. In 2015 Reserve Bank of India issued a 10 rupees commemorative coin to mark the International Day of Yoga. In April 2017, UN Postal Administration (UNPA) issued 10 stamps on Asanas on a single sheet to mark International Day of Yoga

Brief report of Programme The International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking is a United Nations International Day against drug abuse and the illegal drug trade. It is observed annually on 26 June, since 1989. The date June 26 is to commemorate Lin Zeus's dismantling of the opium trade in Human, Guangdong, and ending on June 25, 1839, just before the First Opium War in China. The observance was instituted by General Assembly Resolution 42/112 of 7 December 1987. On 26 June 1987, two important texts (Comprehensive Multidisciplinary Outline of Future Activities in Drug Abuse Control & Declaration of the International Conference on Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking) were adopted at the International Conference on Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking, which was held in Vienna during 17—26 June 1987. The Conference recommended that an annual day should be observed to mark the importance of the fight against drug abuse and illicit trafficking. Both the dates 17 June and 26 June were suggested, and in the later meetings 26 June was chosen and written into the draft and final resolution. It is often referred to by Anti-Drug campaigners as 6/26. A play on Marijuana smokers "4/20" day to celebrate cannabis.

Brief report of Programme National Tree Day Planet Ark's National Tree Day started in 1996 and has grown into Australia's largest community tree planting and nature care event. It's a call to action for all Australians to get their hands dirty and give back to the community. While every day can be Tree Day, we dedicate the celebration of Schools Tree Day and National Tree Day on the last Friday and Sunday in July. In 2024, Schools Tree Day is Friday 26th July and National Tree Day is Sunday 17th July. Tropical Tree Day is 17 JULY, 2023.

Brief report of Programme JIVDANI DUTY The “Jivdani “duty of NCC cadets refers to their involvement in social service activities aimed at aiding animals. This duty underscores the NCC's commitment to fostering a sense of compassion and responsibility among cadets towards all living beings. Cadets engage in activities such as feeding stray animals, providing medical aid when possible, and promoting awareness about animal welfare. This aspect of NCC training not only instills empathy but also encourages cadets to contribute positively to society beyond their immediate training objectives.

Brief report of Programme JAGTIK MARATHI SAMMELAN Jagtik Marathi Sammelans, or World Marathi Conferences, are global gatherings that celebrate Marathi language, literature, culture, and heritage. These conferences bring together Marathi speakers and enthusiasts from around the world to promote and preserve the Marathi language and its diverse cultural expressions. As we unite here, we celebrate our shared heritage, language, and culture. Marathi, our mother tongue, binds us across continents. Our rich literature, vibrant arts, and resilient history inspire us. Marathi Mansa (Marathi People) worldwide have excelled in various fields. From science to arts, business to social service, we've made our mark. Yet, our roots remain strong, connected to our homeland, Maharashtra. As global citizens, we must preserve our language, customs, and traditions. We must pass on our values to future generations. Our youth should be proud of their Marathi heritage.
