Articles

- Economic Growth in Uttar Pradesh in Recent Years
A critical scrutiny of the tall claims of the Uttar Pradesh government using the official figures of the gross state domestic product. – BY Ajit Kumar Singh – Page 10
- Alarming Hunger in India
The varying performance of India in the three domains of calorific undernourishment, child under nutrition and child mortality calls for an objective assessment and targeted remedial measures in aspects where the performance is poor. – BY Md Zakaria Siddiqui, Shreya Biswas – Page 13

➤ Need for Equalizing Endowments

The article notes that the persistence of inequality, as observed over two centuries, undoubtedly points towards its origins in endowments, which perpetuate inequality in a consistent manner. – BY Udaya S Mishra, Balakrushna Padhi – Page 17

➤ Strategic Dissonance in Afghanistan and a Way Forward

The relevance of the recent events in Afghanistan to India’s foreign and security policy is analyzed. – BY Jawahar Bhagwat – Page 19

➤ Remembering Rajat Datta (1956-2021)

A broad vision and a mature stance defined Rajat Datta’s approach towards academic and his students who remember him fondly. – BY Pratyay Nath – Page 22

➤ Economic Impact of the 2020 COVID-19 Lockdown on Indian Farmers

The impact of the pandemic on the farmers with different farm sizes is analysed. The change in the uptake of loans during the pandemic is also investigated. – BY Niharika Pandya, Divya Veluguri, Aditi Roy – Page 31

➤ An Assessment of the Nutritional Status of India’s Rural Labour since the Early 1980s

This paper attempts to analyse changes in the living standards of the rural labour in terms of nutritional level since the 1980s at the all-India and state levels so that correct policy measures may be initiated to improve their lives. – BY Nupur Kataria – Page 35

➤ The Good, the Bad and the Ugly of ‘Startup India’

Startup India has had a positive impact in reducing regional entrepreneurial disparities but has been less successful in providing financial support through its fund of funds for startups. Furthermore, the policy has failed to recognize and address the under-representation of marginalized caste groups and women entrepreneurs in the Indian start-up ecosystem. – BY Anish Tiwari, Teresa Hogan – Page 45

➤ Transition from Informal Firms to Formal

This study develops a self-choice model where the owners of informal firms are driven by their professionalism, asset holding, landownership and tax rates to convert to formality. – BY D Bag – Page 53

➤ Postscript

Raju Chawadi on how the principle of maître transformed the field and his relationship with the research participants; Shweta Rani on how do researchers decide what to prioritise when there are public health threats at the local and global levels; Nithila Kanagasabai on what knowledge can be produced on the global South by reversing the gaze from a distance; and Last Lines by Ponnappa – Page 63

Articles

➤ Denying Choice, Defying Precedent: The Surrogacy (Regulation) Bill, 2019

The Surrogacy (Regulation) Bill, 2019 excludes the never married, the widowed, the divorced, lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer couples and numerous other classes of people who do not seem to fit within the rigid patriarchal norms. Such exclusion is in the teeth of established jurisprudence of the Supreme Court and an affront to constitutional values. – BY Alok Prasanna Kumar – Page 10

- COVID-19: Reinforcing the ‘Technical Fix’ and Distorting Public Health in India
A reflection upon the possible reasons for the feeble response to the second wave of the pandemic and the consequences and limitations of the measures and policies set into motion by the state. – BY Indira Chakravarthi, Imrana Qadeer – Page 13
- Fifteenth Finance Commission’s Recommendations on Local Bodies
The Fifteenth Finance Commission recommendations on local bodies, particularly those relating to urban local bodies, are a dampener. The recommendations lead to an anomalous situation of a least urbanized state getting higher per capita urban grants. – BY G. R. Reddy – Page 17
- Hospitalised Care among Larger States
An examination of the comparative expenditure on hospitalised care in India using three rounds of the National Sample Surveys. – BY Srinadh Ranganadham, Jeetendra Yadav – Page 21
- Why India Needs a Coal Mines Environment Authority
Given India’s continued dependence on coal to supply power for industrial and residential consumers at affordable prices, the country needs a unified coal mines environment authority . – BY Sarvajeet Kumar Sinha, Hippu Salk Kristal Nathan – Page 32
- Adequacy of Social Assistance Schemes during the COVID-19 Lockdown
Multiple social assistance schemes were launched during the first lockdown to help the poor in the India, but not at all eligible households took advantage of them. Studying slum households in Delhi to evaluate the efficacy of nine central and state government schemes show that the average gain was only Rs. 992 per household for a month. – BY Saudamini Das, Ajit Mishra – Page 39
- Suicide by Maharashtra Farmers : The Signs of Persistent Agrarian Distress
The paper relies on the census survey of the suicide-affected farmer’s households from the two most vulnerable districts of Maharashtra from 2014 to 2017 when the largest number of farmer’s suicide cases was reported after the 2008 farm debt waivers.– BY Dnyandev C Talule – Page 46
- Non-communicable Diseases and Their Macroeconomic Impact in India
Non-communicable diseases now account for two-thirds of the total mortality in India and are projected to account for an estimated 75% of the total mortality by 2030. Using a macroeconomic model, this study estimates that in the years between 2015 and 2030, NCDs will result in macroeconomic costs that total $3,158 per capita. – BY Arunika Agarwal, Alyssa Lubet – Page 56
- Agro-food Systems and Public Policy for Food and Agricultural Markets : A Discussion
The paper clarifies contested definitions of food, urgent food questions and concepts of food systems. It also problematizes the empirical granularity needed to understand market behavior that policymakers ignore as they shift agriculture from being the driver of industrialization to being a residualised welfare sector. – BY Barbara Harris-White, Mekhala Krishnamurthy – Page 64
