- India's Nuclear Doctrine
It is essential for India to examine the robustness of its nuclear strategy and particularly, the no-first-sue policy. – BY Jawahar Bhagwat – Page 10
- A Methodological Rectification in the Global Hunger Index
This article proposes a methodological correction to the original Global Hunger Index to improve its validity as a tool to measure hunger in a country. – BY Hariprasad T, Dennis Robert – Page 14
- The NITI Aayog Multidimensional Poverty Index
The explicit limitation of the multidimensional poverty index curated by the NITI Aayog is its lack of comparability across the spectrum of human development within India. – BY Sanjay K Mohanty, U S Mishra – Page 17
- Regional Lockdown Policies and COVID-19 Transmission in India
Do lockdowns and mobility restrictions contain the spread of covid-19? Findings from this article suggest that lockdown policies slowed covid-19 death rates in Tamil Nadu, Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh. – BY Aarushi Karla, Paul Novosad – Page 21
- Manipur and the ADCs Bill, 2021
The conflict about the proposed Manipur (Hill Areas) Autonomous District Councils Bills is a manifestation of the deep divide between the hills and the valley. – BY Thongkhohal Haokip – Page 25
- Political Reservation for OBCs
The responses of the ruling state government and the opposition in Maharashtra to the retention of the OBC reservation in the local self-governments are explored and analysed in this article. – BY Yashwant Zagade – Page 28
- Language, Purity and the Logic of Democracy
Working towards building a chauvinism-free model of democracy that is equally available to all its citizens involves ensuring the freedom of critical discourse to question the proto-hegemonic narrative associated with every primordial (religious or linguistic) affiliation. – BY Probal Dasgupta – Page 38
- COVID-19 and the Formal Sector Crisis in IT and ITeS

This paper draws upon media reports, a short online survey, and telephonic interviews to highlight the working conditions in the information technology and information technology-enabled services sector. – BY Smriti Singh Page 43

➤ Supply- side problems in Food Loss and Waste

The food systems approach proposes reducing food loss and waste as a potential solution to achieve food and nutritional security. One- sixth of the agricultural production, accounting for one- tenth of the gross value added in agriculture, is lost. An efficient cold chain can reduce these losses substantially, - BY Chandra S R Nuthalapati, S Mahendra dev & Rajeev Sharma-Page 51

➤ Climate Change and the Miyawaki Forests

The Miyawaki method is a path- breaking initiative in the recreation of forests in India, particularly in the context of climate change and environment conservation, A judicious conservation policy is the need of the hour as conservation initiatives are effecting are affecting people’s lives and livelihoods. - BY Anju Lis Kurian, C Vinodan – Page 62

➤ Postscript

Partha S Ghosh on Bani Singh’s documentary film Taangh. Mrinmoy pramanick on the cultural narratives of Calcutta as codified through cinema and literature, Anirudh Raghava’s poem “Two Glasses”, and last Lines by Ponnappa. Page 71
