Brief report of programme (in 250 -300 words)

The “Trees of Mumbai” project was an engaging and educational initiative organized by Greenline, aimed at encouraging students to actively participate in documenting the diverse tree species found in Mumbai. The primary objectives of the program where to raise awareness and document the various tree species present in Mumbai. Also to compile data for the creation of a comprehensive data on “Trees of Mumbai.”

Training Session:
Mr. Kayden Anthony organized an online training session to equip students with the necessary knowledge and skills for documenting trees effectively. The session provided students with the knowledge on how to use the Google Form for data collection and fundamental understanding of tree identification and documentation procedures.

Student Participation:
Over the course of one month following the training session, students actively engaged in documenting trees in their respective localities. Each student was provided with a Google Form specifically designed for tree data collection. The form included fields for recording tree species, location (including GPS coordinates) and any notable characteristics of the tree.
Results:
The student-led documentation efforts yielded valuable data on a multitude of tree species across Mumbai. This data will be instrumental in the creation of the data on "Trees of Mumbai"

Conclusion:
The "Trees of Mumbai" documentation program, spearheaded by Greenline, successfully engaged students in a meaningful and educational project. It not only raised awareness about the importance of trees in urban environments but also empowered students to actively contribute to the documentation of Mumbai's rich tree biodiversity. The collected data will serve as a valuable resource for years to come, benefiting both the local community and environmental enthusiasts.

24 | Mou | Shree Jivdani Mandir Trust, Virar (East), Taluka - Vasai, District - Palghar | 2019 | Holistic Development of Students for event management | 5 years

Summary of MoU Purpose and Outcome

At the Jivdani Temple, crowd management is a well-coordinated effort that not only ensures the smooth flow of devotees but also serves as a platform for the holistic development of college students. College students actively participate in managing crowds at the Jivani Temple, where they learn to lead teams, delegate tasks, and collaborate effectively. These experiences instil essential leadership and teamwork skills, preparing students for future roles in diverse professional settings.

In the dynamic environment of crowd management, unforeseen challenges may arise. Students are trained to handle emergencies with composure and make quick, informed decisions. These experiences build resilience and enhance their ability to manage adversity in various aspects of life.

Serving in crowd management roles cultivates a spirit of selflessness and empathy among students. By prioritizing the needs of others and ensuring a positive experience for devotees, students develop a strong sense of social responsibility and compassion towards their community. Crowd management at the Jivdani Temple serves as a transformative journey for college students, where they acquire invaluable skills, deepen their understanding of diversity and inclusion, and cultivate a sense of purpose through service to others. This holistic development not only enriches their college experience but also equips them with the tools and mindset necessary to thrive in their future endeavours.

Linkage - Invitation letter from ACTREC to VIVA College

Dear [Name],

The Advanced Centre for Treatment, Research and Education in Cancer (ACTREC) is the R&D wing of the Tata Memorial Centre (TMC), established in 2002 at Kharghar, Navi Mumbai. ACTREC comprises of three units: CRI or the Cancer Research Institute, CRC or the Clinical Research Centre and the CEE which is the Centre for Cancer Epidemiology. The mandate of ACTREC is to conduct basic and translational research that contributes to our understanding of cancer as a disease and use this knowledge to manage the disease and ultimately find a cure.

The Centre's unique strength and attraction is the CRI. The academic endeavour at CRI is primarily driven by a doctoral program which attracts students from all over India. Besides the full-time young talent, we also have postdoctoral fellows, short and long term summer trainees and interns who learn and contribute to the research undertaken in various laboratories. Oncologists at CRI provide excellent service to the Cancer patients. They are also actively involved in research activities and clinical trials which keep in mind the unique requirements of the cancer patients in India. CEE is the rejuvenated epidemiology centre hosted now in the campus. The unit excels in studies involving cancer burden in India, identifying risk factors related to lifestyle and genetics. The three units also come together in collaborative research activities to better understand cancer as a syndrome and tailor our research to finding means of increasing the long term survival of the cancer patients.

Our collective mandate also includes education. In this context, every year, ACTREC hosts an Open Day event which is scheduled for two days in November/December when we invite college students to the institute. The students are provided with an overview about the various activities at the centre. They get to visit select research labs, interact with the students and observe some of the techniques and tools used in research.

In general, we accept 35 students who are in their Bachelor's (year 3) or Master's degree program from colleges. They must be accompanied by one faculty member. My colleagues Dr. Satish Mukherji & Dr. Kajalini Upadhyay from Science Communication & Professional Education (SCOPE) Cell, are co-ordinating this event. Please send an official acceptance of your college's participation to mukherji@actrec.gov.in and kajalini@actrec.gov.in at the earliest (no later than October 26, 2019) mentioning: (a) College and department, (b) name and mob number of the accompanying faculty, and (c) names of 35 students and their class year. Upon receiving this information, the date and time of your visit and other details will be sent to you by mid November 2019. Details about this year's demonstrations can be found on our website: www.actrec.gov.in/Research/VisitingCollege/19.pdf

I am pleased to invite you to participate in Open Day this year to be held on November 28 & 29, 2019 & we look forward to your college's visit to ACTREC.

With warm regards,

We, the Department of Biotechnology, VIVA college, Virar had applied for educational visit at ACTREC for our department students. In response to our request, we had received positive response from Dr. Sanish Munnoli, SCOPE Cell, ACTREC. On an account of ACTREC OPEN DAY 28th November 2019, 15 students of T.Y.B.Sc., Biotechnology with accompanying faculty Dr. Amod Sattam have visited ACTREC. Till Kharghar, train route and Kharghar railway station to ACTREC campus public transport bus was followed. After 3 hrs journey, we reached ACTREC campus at 12:30 PM. After quick refreshment, students were asked to go through postcer display which was giving message about cancer awareness to the society. Later, brief introduction about ACTREC was given by Dr. Ojaswi Upasini and Dr. Pradnya Kotwal. Followed by this, Ms. Priti (ACTREC research fellow) took us for ACTREC lab visit.

During visit, students got exposure to different labs acquired with the state of art infrastructure and world class experts. Brief about scientific information shared by respective labs are as follows:

Lab 1: Academics at ACTREC
Research fellows of ACTREC gave brief introduction about entrance exams conducted by government agencies and different national institute in research field of biological sciences.

Lab 2: Radiodiagnosis Dept., Dr. Nitin Shetty, Officer-in-charge, CRI, ACTREC
This facility provides clinical services in health care system. During discussion highlighted point was application of conventional MRI and various advanced MRI features like diffusion weighted imaging, MR spectroscopy, MR perfusion and functional MRI.

Lab 3: Clinical Pharmacology, Principle Investigator, Dr. Vikram Gota
We had a briefing about High performance liquid chromatography-Dionex 3000 UPLC. The technique has a wide range of applications including bioavailability studies, bioequivalence studies, therapeutic drug monitoring and pharmacokinetics studies.

Lab 4: Common Instrument Facility, In-charge, Mr. Uday Dandkar, CRI, ACTREC
ACTREC maintains Common Instrument Rooms to ensure optimal utilization of scientific instruments, making them available round the clock to the Centre’s staff and students. Students could see spectrophotometer, Nanodrop, Ultra centrifuges and Chemidoc instruments.

Lab 5: Biophysics Facility, Dr. Kakoli Bose, Principal Investigator, Bose Lab, ACTREC
The focus of Bose Lab is to understand the underlying mechanism of alternative non classical pathways of programmed cell death and study the enzymes involved in metabolic reprogramming. Students were briefed about application of Fluorescence spectroscope in monitoring Protein folding/unfolding for comparative structural alterations with respect cancer biology.
Lab 6: Microbiology Lab, ACTREC
The department offers specialized diagnostic services in the areas of: Bacteriology, Mycology, Mycobacteriology, Examination of urine and stool, Serology of viral infections, Molecular diagnostic methods for viral infections. All the above tests are accredited by the NABL.

Lab 7: Serum Protein Electrophoresis, Dr. Preeti Chavan, Office-In-Charge, Composite Lab, ACTREC
Composite Laboratory is the central diagnostic laboratory of ACTREC-TMC and processes samples for routine hematology, clinical chemistry including immunoassay tests and emergency laboratory services. For the demonstration purpose, they displayed the functioning of an equipment called SEBIA semi-automated HYDRASYS 2 Scan instrument. They also briefed about the application of Serum Protein Electrophoresis in establishing diagnosis of monoclonal gammapathies, liver cirrhosis, renal failure and hypogammaglobulinemia.

Lab 8: DNA sequencing, Dr. Pradnya Kowtal, Officer-in-Charge, DNA sequencing facility & Mutation Analysis, ACTREC
At this facility, students got demonstration on 8 capillary and 48-capillary automated DNA sequencer. Expert gave briefing on data analysis and single nucleotide polymorphism and mutation.

Apart from assigned lab discussion, our students got guiding tips by ACTREC research fellows about opportunities in ACTREC. After wonderful journey in ACTREC, we left campus by 17.30 PM.

We are thankful to ACTREC for giving an exclusive exposure to our students. Also, thankful to our college authority for their kind support.

Dear HOD / Senior Faculty,

The Advanced Centre for Treatment, Research and Education in Cancer (ACTREC) is the R&D wing of the Tata Memorial Centre (TMC). Established in 2002 at Kharaghar, Navi Mumbai, ACTREC focuses on providing cancer treatment, undertaking basic, translational and clinical cancer research, and conducting educational programs. The Centre’s Cancer Research Institute (CRI) – that was established in 1952 in Pune, Mumbai and moved to Kharaghar, Navi Mumbai in 2002 - is engaged in basic and translational research and its research support facilities are embedded with high-end technologies. Its Clinical Research Centre and 120-bed Hospital focus on translational and clinical research as well as clinical trials. The Centre’s academic endeavors encompass doctoral and short-term/summer training programs. Every year in December, ACTREC hosts an ‘Open Day’ - a tradition started in 1995 by CRI. During this two-day event, visitors get to see glimpses of high-end technologies used in cancer research and interact with our scientists and Ph.D. students.

I am pleased to invite you to participate in Open Day 2018 being held on December 6 and 7, 2018. We can accept up to 15 students studying in the Bachelor’s (year 3) or Master’s program, accompanied by one faculty member per college. My colleague Dr. Aparna Bajwa, Officer-in-Charge, Science Communication & Professional Education (SCPE) Cell, is the Co-ordinator of Open Day. Please send her an official acceptance of your college’s participation [abajwa@actrec.gov.in; do mark in cc to: eupasani@actrec.gov.in] at the earliest – no later than October 15, 2018.

mentioning: (a) college and department, (b) name and mobile number of the accompanying faculty, and (c) names of 15 students and their class/year. The date and time of your visit and other details will be sent to you by mid-November 2018. Details about this year’s demonstrations will be uploaded on to our website [www.actrec.gov.in/OpenDay/OD2018.pdf] by end November 2018.

We look forward to your college’s visit to ACTREC during Open Day 2018.

ACTREC VISIT REPORT 2018-19

We, the Department of Biotechnology, VIVA college, Virar had applied for an educational visit at ACTREC for our department students. In response to our request, we received a positive response from Dr. Shubhada Chipulkar, Director ACTREC. On an account of ACTREC OPEN DAY 2018, 15 students of M.Sc.-I Biotechnology with accompanying faculty Dr. Azim Samant had visited ACTREC. Till Kharghar, train route and Kharghar railway station to ACTREC campus public transport bus were followed. After a 3 hrs journey, we reached ACTREC campus at 9:00 AM. After a quick refreshment, students were asked to go through a poster display that was giving a message about cancer awareness to society. Later, a brief introduction about ACTREC was given by Dr. Jegade, and followed by this, Mr. Nathan (ACTREC- research fellow) took us for an ACTREC lab visit. During the visit students got exposure to different labs acquired with the state of the art infrastructure and world-class experts. Brief about scientific information shared by respective labs are as follows:

Lab 1: Cancer Research using Small Laboratory Animals
Dr. Arvind Ingole, Officer-In-Charge, Laboratory Animal Facility, ACTREC
The LAF demonstration had introduced some of the representative animal models maintained in the Laboratory Animal Facility of ACTREC, their characteristics, and usage for biomedical/cancer research. Available animals encompass 10 basic strains of mice, 1 hybrid strain (B6D2F1) of mice, 14 transgenic mice, 9 knockout mice, and 23 crosses of Tg and knockout mice; one each Nude, SCID and NSG mice strains; 1 strain of rat; and 2 strains of hamsters, the majority of which are inbred.

Lab 2: Comparative Oncology Program and Small Animal Imaging Facility
Dr. Pradip Chandhadi, Scientific Officer G, CRI, ACTREC
The focus of the facility is on preclinical animal imaging and research on radiopharmaceuticals. The facility is utilized for preclinical PET, SPECT, and CT imaging involving rodents for basic and translational research projects of in-house scientists, other DAED units, academic institutes, and pharmaceutical industries. The facility is designing imaging protocols, development of animal models, data quantitation and analysis.

Lab 3: Raman Spectroscopy for Cancer Diagnosis
Dr. Murali Krishna Chilikapati, Principal Investigator, Cell & Molecular Imaging Group We had a briefing about the background on the Raman effect/spectroscopy and its application in the diagnosis of oral and cervix cancers.

Lab 4: Principles and practical aspects of Transmission Electron Microscopy
Mr. Sharada Sawani, Officer-In-Charge, Electron Microscopy, CRI, ACTREC The Transmission Electron Microscopy Facility strives to provide high-quality images with advanced techniques and equipment required for investigators to critically evaluate and interpret their data. The facility is open to in-house researchers, clinicians as well as external investigators, and users. They have JEOL JEM 1400Plus TEM which works at 80-120KV with 0.2nm resolution and magnification up to X12,00,000 which is suitable for biological, polymer, and material science applications.

Lab 5: Flow Cytometry
Dr. Shubhada V. Chipulkar, Principal Investigator & Officer-In-Charge, Flow Cytometry The Flow Cytometry Facility (FCM) is a centralized facility used by scientists/clinicians from ACTREC for a wide range of research applications including immunophenotyping, multicolor analysis, DNA content and cell cycle analysis, apoptosis and proliferation studies, detection of mitochondrial membrane potential, stem cell analysis - side cell population, dermal stem cell analysis, detection of circulating tumor cells, functional assays like intracellular calcium influx, oxidative burst analysis, intracellular cytokine analysis, cytometric bead array assay for the detection of cytokines, and 4-way live cell and single cell sorting. The facility has four flow cytometers: (a) FACSARia-I equipped with 3 lasers (407 nm, 488 nm, 633 nm), can perform 1-color analysis and 4-way sorting, (b) FACSCalibur equipped with one laser (488 nm) and can perform 3-color analysis (c) FACSARia-III equipped with 5 lasers (407 nm, 488 nm, 633 nm, 561 nm and UV: 355 nm) which can perform 18 color analysis with 4 way sorting, and (d) Attune NXT equipped with 4 lasers (407 nm, 488 nm, 633 nm, 561 nm) and can perform 14 color analysis.

Lab 6: Protein Structure for Drug Discovery
Dr. Ashok Varma, PI, Macromolecular Crystallography & X-ray Diffraction Facility, ACTREC The dedicated facility has (a) Crystalization unit, (b) Microscope to visualize the crystals, (c) Microstar- Microfocus Rotating Anode, and (d) Integrated computer controller motorized image Plate detector and (e) computers to process the data and determine the crystal structure of proteins. The ACTREC facility also provides hands-on training to different universities. Facility helps scientists, research scholars in protein crystalization, structure determination and refinement.

Lab 7: Composite Lab
Dr. Preeti Chavan, Office-In-Charge, Composites Lab, ACTREC Composite Laboratory is the central diagnostic laboratory of ACTREC-TMC and processes samples for routine hematology, clinical chemistry including immunoassay tests and emergency laboratory services. For the demonstration purpose, they displayed the functioning of an equipment called OSMOMETER. It is an instrument capable of determining the osmolality of a solution by measuring the activity of that solution which is called a colligative property. It helps differentiate between various causes of hyponatremia and aids in the better management of the condition.

Lab 8: Radiation Oncology
Dr. Tejpal Gupta, Office-In-Charge, Department of Radiation Oncology, CRC, ACTREC The department of Radiation Oncology at ACTREC provides high-quality services, such as generating high-quality evidence for the use of advanced radiotherapy technology for various cancers including brain tumors, head & neck, breast, cervix, bladder, prostate cancers, and hematolymphoid malignancies. Here, students got exclusive exposure to “DHABHATRON”, the indigenous telecobalt machine, is one of the successful products developed by Bhabha Atomic Research Centre, Mumbai for cancer treatment. Apart from the assigned lab discussion, our students got guiding tips from ACTREC research fellows about opportunities in ACTREC. After a wonderful journey in ACTREC, we left campus by 2:45 PM.

We are thankful to ACTREC for giving exclusive exposure to our students. Also, thankful to our college authority for their kind support.
