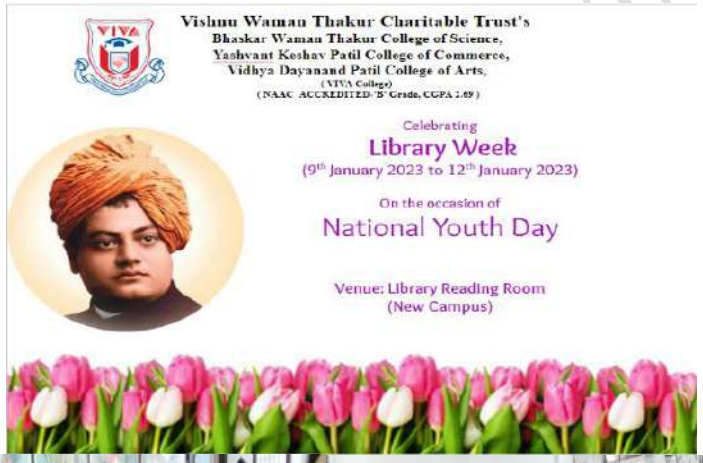
Library Week Celebration Report - National Youth Day

In honor of Swami Vivekananda's birth anniversary on National Youth Day, from January 9th to January 12th, 2023 our library celebrated Library Week with an array of engaging activities. The event showcased a blend of intellect and creativity, engaging students, staff, and faculty members alike.

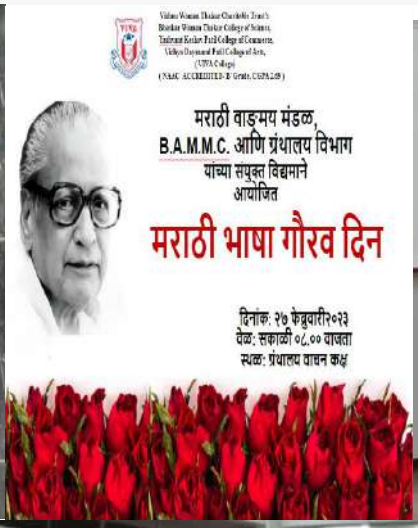
Various competitions, including Sudoku, Face Painting, Word Search, Ikebana (flower arrangement), and Book Search, were organized to stimulate diverse interests. Participants exhibited their skills and enthusiasm, fostering a vibrant atmosphere within the library. Certificates were distributed to the winners as tokens of appreciation for their achievements. The event not only promoted intellectual growth but also facilitated community bonding. It was heartening to witness the active involvement of students, staff, and faculty members, which enriched the celebration and highlighted the significance of libraries as dynamic hubs of learning and collaboration.



Marathibhasha Gaurav Din

The Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din, celebrated on February 27th, was commemorated through a collaborative effort between the Library, Marathi Vangamay Mandal, and the BAMMC Department. This celebration, held on the birth anniversary of the esteemed Marathi poet Kusumagraj, aimed to honor Marathi culture and literature. The event featured a series of diverse competitions, which served as a platform for participants to showcase their talents and deepen their connection with the language.

The competitions encompassed a range of activities, fostering creativity and linguistic appreciation. From thought-provoking literary puzzles to artistic endeavors, participants engaged enthusiastically. As a testament to their accomplishments, winners were recognized with certificates. The collaborative effort yielded an event that not only honored Kusumagraj's legacy but also encouraged a stronger connection to Marathi language and culture.



Theme-Based Book Exhibition - National Science Day

In celebration of National Science Day on February 28th, VIVA College Library organized a captivating theme-based book exhibition. Commemorating the discovery of the Raman effect by Sir C. V. Raman in 1928, the exhibition of science and technology books. The event provided students, faculty, and staff with an opportunity to explore the realms of scientific knowledge. The displayed collection was well-received, garnering appreciation from attendees for its educational value and contribution to the promotion of scientific curiosity and learning.

Articles

- Meitei Majortarian Politics of the BJP
  The successful capture of power by the Bharatiya Janata Party in Manipur has significantly affected the state's ethnic politics. – BY Amom Malemnganba Singh – Page 10
- Engineering Education in India
  Serious concerns have been raised from time to time about the efficacy of engineering education in India in providing employable skills. – BY Tapas Roy, Sudas Roy – Page 13
- The Limbu-Tamang Communities of Sikkim
  Since its merger in 1975 with the Indian union, one of the major sociopolitical issues in Sikkim has been the demand of reservation for the Limbus and Tamangs. – BY Ugen Bhutia, Vaidyanath Nishant – Page 17
- Biodiversity Management Committees
  The operationalization of the Biological Diversity Act in various local governments of Tamil Nadu is analysed in this article. – BY Inbarasan K. G., Prasanth J – Page 21
- Sri Lanka's IMF Solution
  Sri Lanka faces an uncertain path to obtaining bailout funding from the International Monetary Fund, while the existing terms of the agreement itself will exacerbate the ongoing economic crisis. Is there an alternative to austerity in this conjuncture, including possibilities for self-sufficiency? – Page Devaka Gunawardena, Ahilan Kadirgamar – Page 35
- Welfare Discourses in the Global South
  In the global South, contextual and motivational factors guide the state policies on social welfare and cannot be analogous to the idea of a typical welfare state in industrilised democracies. Both normative and pragmatic considerations influence the state's provisions for the needy. Social protection of the deprived is the precursor to economic change and legitimization of a democratic state. – BY Prakash Sarangi – Page 41
- Margins on Income from Crop Production

VIVA Library - CAS Bulletin

The determination of factors influencing income from crop production remains crucial in understanding and mitigating stagnation in agricultural income. This paper explores different aspects of agrarian production processes to identify two major groups of crop income determinants: the extensive and the intensive margins. – BY Megha Dutta, Niladri Sekhar Dhar – Page 48

- Strengthening Health Information Infrastructures
  With the rapid proliferation of health information systems in low-and middle-income countries, there are ongoing efforts to incorporate architectural approaches to ensure interoperability and reduce fragmentation. This paper suggests that Indian MFL, has failed to create the heterogeneous sociotechnical network around it and been unsuccessful in creating value for the initial group of users and susquently building growth momentum. – BY Amit Mishra, Sundeep Sahay – Page 57

Articles

- Resolving the Debt Crisis
  As the number of developing countries likely to default on external debt service commitments increases, the effort to resolve crises in countries that have defaulted many months back remains unsuccessful. – BY C P Chandrasekhar – Page 10
- Modernity with a Brand
  The takeover of NDTV by the Adani Group points to the lack of regulatory mechanisms regarding media ownership in India. – BY Bhupen Singh – Page 13
- Non-performing Loan Auctions
  Relying on established theories in auction literature, the lacunae in the design of auction mechanism used by the banks are identified in this article. – BY Ashish Pandey – Page 17
- Musk's Twitter Acquisition
  Clearly, the world needs a "global digital public town hall" governed in the public interest. – BY Gurumurthy Kasinathan – Page 20
- The Multipolar Global Political Economy
  The desire for a unipolar order from hegemonic powers accompanied by force, interventions and hybrid wars will not reverse the trend towards a multipolar international system, though there can be some upsets, with specific countries

VVA Library - CAS Bulletin

switching to become satellites of unipolar great powers. – BY Anuradha M chenoy – Page 30

- Strike, Violence and an Ideological Paradox
  The strike of November 1938 was the first time that the untouchable workers, organized under the Independent Labour Party led by B R Ambedkar and the communists, came together to strike against and its larger context, the Congress government's justification and support to the violence against workers under the rubric of their nationalistic agenda are examined. – BY Santosh Suradkar – Page 35
- COVID-19 Forecasting and the Lockdown in India
  Comparing different models for short-term forecasts-hybrid autoregressive integrated moving average with error-remodelling using fast Fourier transform-has been found to have better accuracy. It is observed that the data set starting from the first phase of the lockdown generates more accurate estimates. – BY Kalluru Siva Reddy, Mehuli Paul – Page 42
- Targeted versus Non-targeted Catch
  This paper highlights some sustainability concerns related to Andhra Pradesh's marine fisheries by using primary data. The analysis shows that several serious problems lie beneath the estimates of the quantity and value of annual marine catch from the state. If strict measures are not adopted, the fishery industry might collapse sooner than later. – BY Jeena T Srinivasan, Jyothis Sathyapalan – Page 52
- Postscript
  Ankush Pal on generational capital and the "privileged Bahujan", Shakti Shulka on how the Delhi Metro lays bare the deeply casteist and elitist nature of urban policy; Sunayan Bhattacharjee, Amrita Chakarborty on how Kantara is undone by its male centricity; Last Lines by Ponnappa.

Articles

- Demonetisation Judgement
  The Supreme Cour's demonetization judgement is legally right but comes too late to be of any appreciable legal interest. – BY Alok Prasanna Kumar – Page 10
- The National Logistics Policy, 2022

Library - CAS Bulletin

The Government of India has introduced the National Logistics Policy, 2022 envisioning improvement in India's logistics infrastructure and services. – BY Ram Singh, Aawib Chaudhary – Page 13

- Adoption Intention of Digital Tools in Odisha
  The rationale for the adoption of digital tools by micro and small entrepreneurs in Odisha in the post-pandemic era is explained in this article. – BY Lakshmi Prasad Padhy, Ispeeta Satpathy – Page 18
- Football, Freedom and the Arab Spring
  The men's football world cup held in Qatar became an arena where multiple global sociopolitical contradictions were played out and geopolitical issues were brought into focus. – BY Amir Ali – Page 22
- Women's Farm Employment and Irrigation
  Irrigation is one of the chief determinants of crop yields and sustainable agriculture. However, two surveys conducted among farmers and women in two regions of Uttar Pradesh highlight how irrigation sources impact women's lives. Policies can be designed to improve the lesser-used irrigation sources, which in turn can contribute to women's empowerment. – BY Indranil De – Page 30
- A Widening Current Account Deficit
  The reason for the increase in the current account deficit during the first quarter of fiscal year 2022-23 is analysed in this paper. One reason for the widening of CAD has to do with India's growing dependence on fossil fuels. India is exporting low-valued technology intensive goods while importing high valued technology advanced goods. – BY Nilanjan Banik, S Ramakrishna Velamuri – Page 38
- The Beda Tribe in Ladakh
  Several Indian tribes are now at the threshold of assimilation with the larger dominant groups neighboring them, while many who have succeeded in preserving their tribal identity and maintaining a continuity with adaption to the values of modern culture are finding it difficult to survive as they have in the past. – BY Harish K Thakur – Page 44
- Coal for Electricity Generation in India
  The paper discusses the commitment on climate change negotiations and reflects why thermal power plants are not replaceable by renewables. Accordingly, different horizontal scenarios for electricity demand and vertical scenarios for coal supply are formulated, thereby calculating the coal requirements for different demand scenarios. – BY Atul Agrawal, Bibhu Prasad Rath – Page - 51
- A Newsletter Communicating Farmer's Protests
  The representation of the issues related to the farmer's protest in India in a newsletter-Trolley Times- is analysed. The newsletter emerged from the protest ground in response to the false reporting by the mainstream media, which

- Welfare for Migrants in Kerala
  Even the radically decentralized states such as Kerala are underperforming in their welfare responsibilities. A greater role for local governments needs to be re-envisioned. – BY Ambuja Raj – Page 10
- The Indo-Pacific Economic Framework
  The deeper integration policies go beyond tariff and non-tariff liberalization with freer movement of capital and skilled labour flows. – BY Archana Srivastava, Somesh Kumar Mathur – Page 17
- The News Media Circus
  The gruesome murder of Shraddha Walker has yet again laid bare the familiar patterns of news reporting violence against women. – BY Smriti Singh – Page 22
- Financial Literary and Inclusion
  Increasing financial frauds and scams expose the vulnerabilities of the population subgroup which is included in the financial system. – BY Kshirpa Jain – Page 25
- R K Hebsur (1935-2022)
  Despite spending considerable time teaching as a college lecturer, R K Hebsur made an imprint in the field of research methodology. – BY Anil S Sutar – Page 28
- New Developmentalism and Left Mobilisation in Kerala
  The "new developmentalism" of the Communist Party of India (Marxist) in Kerala is an attempt to construct an alternative development model to the neo-liberal development. It is seen as a transition from the 1990's left confrontation with neo-liberal reforms and as a convincible alternative in the globally acclaimed Kerala model of development. – BY V Bijukumar – Page 40
- Food and Social Security at the Margins
  A survey of all particularly vulnerable tribal group households in two blocks of Jharkhand reveals that their lives remain precarious due to disrupted livelihoods, limited access to education and other public services and continued exploitation.

VVA Library - CAS Bulletin

The public distribution system has become a crucial source of support for them. – BY Anmol Somanchi – Page 47

- Barriers to Establishing a Public Health Cadre
  The efforts to develop a public health cadre have not seen much progress in most of the Indian states, despite the recommendations of several committees appointed by the union government and the 2022 guidelines issued for establishing them. This paper examines the epistemic, structural, systemic and administrative barriers to the establishment of such a cadre in the south Indian states. – BY Sobin George, Mohan Rao – Page 55
- Postscript
  Rajat Sebastian and Nadhin Shibu on how contemporary films are eliminating supernatural characteristics and motivations for their villains; Sourav Mohanty and Sujit Kumar Mishra on how the Odia film Bhoka explores the struggle for survival in a pandemic of hunger; Carol D'Souza's poem "Dinner on Tuesday and Last Lines by Ponnappa – Page 63

- Natural Rubber Sector in India
  The changes experienced by natural rubber sector in India during the globalization period and its consequent challenges are examined in this article. – BY A Sajitha – Page 28
- Contrasted Agrarian Change in Punjab
  The scarcity of lucrative non-farm jobs and the stagnant or declining agricultural incomes for rural households in Punjab, especially for the Jat Sikhs, are causing distress. By selecting two villages of different types from Ludhiana and Jalandhar districts, this paper presents how the different conditions inherent to the villages led to sharply contrasted agrarian changes. – BY Koichi Fujita, Akihiko Ohno – Page 41
- New Labour Codes and Women Workers
  The union government has enacted four new codes amalgamating existing 29 labour legislations and presently is in the process of finalizing the rules. This paper examines the probable impact of such changes on women workers, in the context of the declining female labour force participation rate in the last few decades. Labour laws need to be reframed in such a manner that they contain measures that facilitate greater female participation in the labour market. – BY kingshuk Sarkar, Ellina Samantroy – Page 52
- How Smart Are Indian Smart Cities?
  This paper deals with the components of a "smart city" and the governmental actions required for their sustainability. It aims at analyzing the perception of the people towards the smart city project and gauges their understanding of its components based on a purposive sampling method. On all fronts of the smart city components, it was found that the general public were not satisfied with the facilities available. – BY Naina Sambher, D D Sharma – Page 59

- India's Exclusive Growth
  In the period since the early 1990s, India's economy experienced exclusive growth, that is growth that benefited the rich. The richest 10% of the population has been the recipient of a large and growing share of the incremental income generated by growth. This paper investigates, theoretically and empirically, the rise and persistence of exclusive growth. – BY Ajit K Ghose – Page 35
- To Patent or Not?
  India has undertaken many regulatory and legislative reforms to promote innovation and patent protection by universities and academic institutions. This paper provides an empirical estimation of the extent to which patenting by academic institutions in India is affected by factors like institutional policy frameworks, departmental differences and individual researchers characteristics. – BY Akriti Jain, Ruchi Sharma – Page 43
- COVID-19 and Migrant Workers from Rural Bihar
  More than half of the rural households had at least one migrant worker prior to the pandemic and for 94% of these households, the migrant worker's livelihood was adversely affected. There was large-scale reverse migration with a huge fraction of returning migrants spending as much as four to five months in native villages with limited opportunities for alternative work. – BY Gaurav Datta, Swati Dutta – Page 54

- Is There a 'Money Machine' Tax?
  This analysis, based on more than four decades of time series data on sales tax/value added tax/goods and services tax in India, does not reveal any nonpareil revenue potential of VAT or the VAT-based GST system. Through the GST revenue has started growing at a faster pace since mid 2020, it is yet to meet its target. – BY Anita Rath – Page 45
- Aggregate Demand and Economic Growth in India
  Applying the autoregressive distributed lag to the co-integration model and incorporating the structural changes in policies since 1991, it is found that in the long run, out of the five components that significantly influence the aggregate demand and hence the economic growth of India, the private final consumption expenditure plays the most significant role followed by private fixed investment. – BY Umesh Bhagat, Hrushikesh Mallick – Page 55

- Investigating the Role of Remittances
  The Census 2011 estimated the presence of 450 million internal migrants in India, which is an increase of 45% over the Census 2001. As a corollary, the domestic flow of remittances has been a significant rise. This paper aims to understand how financial support affects the perceived economic well-being of households in rural India. – BY Shreya Nupur, Meghana Dutta – Page 33
- Revenue Shortfall and GST Compensation
  The states that will suffer the maximum revenue impact if the expected goods and services tax collections do not improve in the coming years, are identified in this paper. The pre and post GST buoyancy of the states is compared to understand the possible outcome. The likely revenue requirement for servicing the accumulated special market borrowings of the union government is assessed. – BY Sacchidnanda Mukherjee – Page 40
- Industrial Pollution and Health Damage
  The Singrauli region produces 16% of coal and 13% of thermal power in India. Various state and non-state institutions have examined the consequent regional population. A survey of 4,383 families in southern Sonbhadra district yielded data on select health impacts, which were then mapped to correlate to the industrial gaseous emissions. – BY Vasudha A – Page 47
- Tracing the Geographies of Inequality in India
  Spatial, that is, geographic inequalities are growing in India and other countries. Some countries are better provided with services, infrastructure and earning opportunities. The urban-rural difference is salient to these distinctions. However, locating the geographies of advantage and disadvantage requires going below the level of states and beyond the binary of urban-rural distinction. – BY Anirudha Krishna, Rajesh Shulka – Page 57

Training Programme on fire safety

The training on fire safety and preventive measure were organized on 21st Jan 2022 for library staff. Mr. Harish koli a well-known fire safety trainer was invited to train and educate library staff on fire safety and preventive measure. Mr. Harish Koli demonstrated various types of fire extinguishers and how to operate them. He also educated library staff about various safety techniques and preventive measures.

The training was very informative and valuable.

VIVA College Library celebrates "Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din"

A great poet, play writer, critic and Dnyanpeeth awardee "KUSUMAGRAJ`s" (Shree Vishnu Waman Shirawadakar) birthday is celebrated as "Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din" on 27 February. On this occasion, VIVA College Library in collaboration with the Department of Marathi Vangmay Mandal organised an online "Hasya Mudra" programme on 26th February 2022.

The programme was well received and appreciated by all the students, Non-teaching staff and the Teaching fraternity.

Glimpses of Programme

VIVA College Library

Book Display

The VIVA Library organized a "Book Display" on 28th February 2022 on the occasion of National Science Day.

Students, faculty and other staff members visited the Book Display and appreciated the initiative and efforts of Library staff for showcasing the collection of Books.

VIVA College Library

The VIVA Library organized a "Book Display" on 8th March 2022 on the occasion of "International Women's day"

Students, faculty and other staff members visited the Book Display and appreciated the initiative and efforts of Library staff for showcasing the collection of Books.

Book Display

It has been a tradition and good practice of VIVA Library to tribute "Dyanjyoti Savitribai Jyotirao Phule" every year. The library displayed books on Savitribai Phule on 10th March 2022 to respect and commemorate the great social reformer and pioneer in girls' education.

The objective of this book display was to create a sense of respect and tribute to this social reformer among students and staff members.

National Youth Day

The VIVA Library organized a talk on "Youth Day" on 12th January 2021 to commemorate the Birth Anniversary of Swami Vivekanand.

The event was well received and appreciated by faculty members and other staff.

Training Programme on fire safety

Library Activity 2020-21

The training on fire safety and preventive measure were organized on 20th Jan 2021 for library staff. Mr. Harish koli a well-known fire safety trainer was invited to train and educate library staff on fire safety and preventive measure. Mr. Harish Koli demonstrated various types of fire extinguishers and how to operate them. He also educated library staff about various safety techniques and preventive measures.

The training was very informative and valuable.

Library Activity 2020-21

Book Display

It has been a tradition and good practice of VIVA Library to tribute "Dyanjyoti Savitribai Jyotirao Phule" every year. The library displayed books on Savitribai Phule on 10th March 2021 to respect and commemorate the great social reformer and pioneer in girls' education.

The objective of this book display was to create a sense of respect and tribute to this social reformer and scientist among students and staff members.

On this occasion, VIVA College Library in collaboration with Department of Marathi Vangmay Mandal & National Service Scheme organised various Events like Granthdindi and other performance.

The winners of Handwriting, Advertising evaluation competitions which were held on 13th & 17th February 2020 were felicitated during this occasion. These competitions were very popular among Teachers, Students, & Non-teaching staff in which more than 512 participants participated. Also Felicitated to Knowledge Bees Committee Members and Best Reader Award was given to best Reader.

The programme was well received and appreciated by all the students, Non-teaching staff and Teaching fraternity.

Glimpses of Programme

Book Display

Library Activity 2019-20

It has been a tradition and good practice of VIVA Library to tribute "Dyanjyoti Savitribai Jyotirao Phule" every year. Library displayed books on Savitribai Phule on 9th March 2020 to 14th March 2020 to respect and commemorate the great social reformer and pioneer in girl's education.

The objective of this book display was to create a sense of respect and tribute to these social reformer and scientist among students and staff members.

Articles

- The City in the Constitution
  With growing urbanization, the problem of democratic deficit in the cities due to panchayati raj institutions or urban local bodies not being sufficiently empowered by the Constitution, is going to become even more acute. – BY Alok Prasanna Kumar - Page – 10
- The Constitutional Case against the Citizenship Amendment Bill
  The Citizenship (Amendment) Bill passed by the Lok Sabha on 8 January 2019 violates the Constitution because the classification it adopts is manifestly arbitrary and unjustified. – BY M Mohsin Alam Bhat - Page – 12
- The Supreme Court's Death Penalty Focus
  The lack of coherence in explaining the significance, meaning and character of the concept of mitigating factors in the judiciary's sentencing exercises leaves room for subsequent judgments to easily disregard them. – BY Neetika Vishwanath, Ninni Susan Thomas – Page 15

- How Gender-sensitive Are India's Energy Policies?
  The two flagship energy policies in India-the Integrated Energy Policy and the National Energy Policy-fail to recognize women's gendered role in production, access to energy and formulation of energy policies and programmes. – BY M Manjula – Page –18
- Dynamics of General Strikes
  The character of worker's protests has significantly changed in the post-reform period, thanks to the neo-liberal forces that have sought to weaken the collective institutions. – BY K R Shyam Sundar – Page – 22
- She Recovered Many Historied: A Tribute to Aparna Basu
  Aparna Basu, who passed away in December 2018, possessed a deep sense of history and a sensitivity to the human spirit which showed in all her multifaceted activities. – BY Devaki Jain – Page - 25
- Land Is Not Soap
  It is argued that it is incorrect to apply the widely-used intersecting curves of demand and supply on a graph of price against quantity when trying to understand or explain the market for land. – BY Shirish B Patel – Page – 33
- Financing the Micro and Small Enterprises
  The pro-market financial inclusion rhetoric of the second half of the currnet decade has not helped the MSMES, especially those engaged in manufacturing activities, to enhance access to bank credit. – BY Tara Nair, Keshab Das – Page – 37
- Changing Task Content of Jobs
  In India, between 1983 and 2011 non-routine cognitive analytical taks intensity jobs increased, as did non-routine cognitive interactive task intensity jobs, in line with the global trend. – BY Pankaj Vashist, Jaydev Dubey – Page – 44
- Retelling an Epic through a Modern Ballad

Celebrating Centenary of Vinda Karandikar

The VIVA Library Celebrates Centenary of Vinda Karandikar on 25th Jan 2018 on this occasion Library organized "Kavya Vachan Spardha" in memory of Vinda Karandikar a renowned Marathi poet. In this competition good number of students and staff took part and recited different poems.

The event was well received and appreciated by students and staff.

Glimpses of Programme

VIVA College Library celebrates "Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din"

A great poet, play writer, critic and Dnyanpeeth awardee "KUSUMAGRAJ`s" (Shree Vishnu Waman Shirawadakar) birthday is celebrated as "Marathi Rajbhasha Gaurav Din" on 27 February 2018. On this occasion VIVA College Library in collaboration with Department of Marathi Vangmay Mandal & National Service Scheme organised various literary Event.

The winners of Handwriting & Essay writing competitions which were held on 15th & 16th Feb 2018 were felicitated during this occasion. These competitions were very popular among Teachers, Students, & Non-teaching staff in which more than 416 participants were participated. Best Reader award was also given to best Reader.

The programme was well received and appreciated by all the students, Non-teaching staff and Teaching fraternity.

Glimpses of Programme

Tribute to Savitribai Phule & Stephen William Hawking

It has been a tradition and good practice of VIVA Library to tribute "Dyanjyoti Savitribai Jyotirao Phule" every year. Library displayed books on Savitribai Phule on 10th March 2018 to respect and commemorate the great social reformer and pioneer in girl's education.

In an another event the library also exhibited books on "Stephen William Hawking", a great Scientist and Astrophysicist on 17th March 2018.

The objective of these book displays was to create a sense of respect and tribute to these social reformer and scientist among students and staff members.
