A guest lecture by Suhas Birhade

February 12th 2019: “It is an extremely responsible work to do reporting.”
Suhas Birhade

Suhaas Birhade, Special Representative of Lok Sabha, said that due to the increasing influence of today's breaking news and electronic media, it is a very challenging task to conduct news. Suhas Birhade was present on 12th February, 2019 from 10am-12pm in New Campus, Seminar Hall to guide the students of the BMM department of VIVA College to guide the students on “Journey from Event to News”.

The news' subject has to be understood before it is delivered. This makes your news different from others. Apart from this, your sources should be accurate to make news trustworthy. These resources provide you with many news in the unknowable, but you should be prepared to work on it. Being a reporter is a very responsible job. Birhade advised students to be alert about current happenings and told them to reduce social pressure instead of building it.

In 2008, Taj was a very challenging task to cover after terrorists attack as a reporter. You want to go home to your family but right that time one must live up to their job as a journalist and stand for people, such needed advise was given by Mr Birhade.

BMM Coordinator Mrs Neetu Sharma welcomed Mr Suhas. BMM staff and students were present for this event.

Getting an internship suiting your talents is a lot easy with correct attitude and steps, is what he told students.

In last 20 years the industry has changed a lot. The perspective of audience has changed totally and this is exactly the advantage for young media lovers as they have new and wide scope of work now. Young students must take this as a positive situation. This advice of Mr Vaidya was very helpful for students.
