Raksha Bandhan Celebration

Event : Raksha Bandhan
Date (DD/MM/YY) : 2nd September, 2023	Total Participants : VSC Members
Convener of the Program : Ms.SONAL RAUT (Cultural Chairperson)
Brief report of Program	VIVA Student Council fostered a heartwarming tradition of inclusivity this Raksha Bandhan. In a unique celebration, students tied Rakhis on the wrists of the college's non-teaching staff, security personnel, and cleaning crew. This thoughtful gesture transcended the conventional student-teacher bond. Students, armed with Rakhis and gifts, interacted with the college's backbone – the individuals who ensure the smooth functioning of the institution. The exchange of Rakhis, a symbol of protection and care, signified the students' appreciation for the tireless efforts of these unsung heroes. The celebration resonated with warmth and gratitude. The non-teaching staff, security personnel, and cleaning crew were visibly touched by the students' initiative. The joyous atmosphere fostered a sense of community and belonging, reminding everyone that VIVA is a family. VIVA student council General Secretary, Vishal Jain and team, highlighted the initiative's significance: "Raksha Bandhan is about celebrating bonds that go beyond blood relations. Today, we celebrate the people who make VIVA a nurturing environment. Their dedication deserves recognition, and this gesture expresses our heartfelt appreciation." This innovative Raksha Bandhan celebration served as a powerful reminder of the interconnectedness within the college community. It not only strengthened existing bonds but also set a precedent for future VIVA traditions.
